

Barnardos Australia

Who we are

Barnardos Australia is a non-government, non-denominational charity which has been at the forefront of child protection for over 130 years. We believe all children deserve to be safe and protected.

We work with families and communities facing issues such as violence, poverty, mental illness and homelessness, to keep children safe at home.

Barnardos extensive range of services include, family and domestic violence support, mental health support, emergency accommodation, parent education, counselling, foster care and adoption.

Our evidence-based research and dedicated caseworkers and carers ensure Barnardos is well equipped to fully support, care for and nurture children in need.

We believe child abuse is unacceptable; child protection is at the forefront of what we do.

How we help

Support for families

Barnardos offers a wide range of services for families to help them care for their children.

Foster, kinship care and adoption

At Barnardos Australia we provide a range of foster care and kin care options to meet the needs of children in NSW and the ACT.

Adolescent services

We aim to prevent homelessness and support young people and, where possible, their families.

Advocacy for children

Barnardos uses its knowledge, gained while delivering services, to advocate for policies and practices which will assist children, young people and their families.

Case management systems

The Practice Development Centre (PDC) is a welfare service initiative of Barnardos Australia and was established to develop cutting edge case management tools to help us provide the best possible support to children and young people.

Community support for all Australian children

We offer national community programs which enable children and young people to take part in activities that focus on education, health, and social and emotional well-being.

Every day there are more than 154 substantiated reports of child abuse and neglect.
AIHW 14/15

Every two weeks one child dies as a direct result of assault.
AIHW 2012

Of the 43,399 children not able to live with their parents, 40 percent are living with foster carers.
AIHW 14/15

Between 2012-2015 almost 200,000 women and children were made homeless due to family violence.
AIHW 2015

From 2010 to 2015 the number of children who were the subject of a substantiated report of abuse or neglect increased by nearly 35 per cent, from 31,527 to 42,457.

Barnardos by numbers

Barnardos Australia's 541 staff provide an extensive range of over 150 services with the assistance of 867 carers and over 800 volunteers. Over 85% percent of our workforce are welfare staff.

In 2014/15 Barnardos Australia directly helped 11,109 children:

- 947 children find safe homes through out-of-home care.
 - 21 children find permanent homes through our Find-a-Family adoption program.
- 2523 children assisted through Barnardos children's support programs nationally.
- 7639 children helped in their own family through preventative programs.
 - Over 100 children aged 5 to 12 years through our Indigenous Learning Centre program.
 - 3144 'at risk' young people supported through our Streetwork program.
 - 424 young people assisted through our Youth Homelessness programs.

Where our money goes

In 2014/15 almost 90 per cent of Barnardos Australia's total expenditure was spent on direct welfare programs and services (over $59m).

We have increased our welfare expenditure 85% percent over the last six years, from $31.8m in 2009 to $59m in 2015.

Our history

Barnardos Australia takes its values and direction from the work of its founder Thomas Barnardo. An Irish philanthropist, Barnardo discovered the extreme poverty children were experiencing and opened boys and girls homes in the east end of London in the late 19th century. Dr Barnardo collected donations so that no child would ever be turned away from his care.

Barnardos still works to prevent and protect children from abuse and neglect.

We are part of the Barnardos group which was founded in the United Kingdom in the 1800's and now has organisations in Ireland, New Zealand and here in Australia.
