How Barnardos Australia helps families

Barnardos Australia's Family Support programs provide information, support and practical assistance across a range of areas including child rearing, child care, solving problems, and living with a disability. All programs are aimed at improving the quality of life for children and their families.

About our families

Many children suffer abuse or neglect when their parents do not have the resources or capacity to raise them. The families that use our services have usually experienced significant hardship or trauma. They are often stressed by poverty, social isolation, disability, mental illness, domestic violence or drug and alcohol abuse.

Barnardos Australia provides an extensive range of services to help families and their children including:

In 2015/16 we directly helped:

17,039 children through all our programs

Supported 1,011 Barnardos Australia carers

Delivered 176 programs and services

We believe in keeping families together
